

THE ENDS OF THIRTY BIG DEPRESSIONS

Thursday, 23 June 2022 | 14:00 - 15:30 |
Hopkins 101, Whiteknights Campus
(one hour lecture plus 30 minutes for discussion)

We are delighted to invite you to participate in our upcoming GEAR Quarterly Lecture organised by the Group for Economic Analysis at Reading (GEAR) at the Department of Economics of the University of Reading. GEAR covers the core topics in microeconomics, macroeconomics and econometrics, as well as modern extensions, with particular application to policymaking at global, national or local level.

We shall hold these lectures every quarter as a hybrid event via MS Teams.

Attendance is free. To register your interest, email michelle.nand@reading.ac.uk or a.mihailov@reading.ac.uk

Professor Martin Ellison
University of Oxford,
Nuffield College, NuCamp, CEPR

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Martin is Professor of Economics at the University of Oxford, a Fellow of Nuffield College, a consultant at the European Central Bank and a Fellow of the Centre for Economic Policy Research (CEPR). He has also recently finished a term as a member of the Finnish Economic Policy Council.

His research interests cover many areas of theoretical and applied macroeconomics, with recent papers concentrating on the management of the UK National Debt and the economic value of increases in longevity.
