

Habitats

Hiding to keep safe

Touch the pink buttons and see what happens.

◀ ▶ Use the arrows to move backwards and forwards.

✕ Touch the cross to close a window.

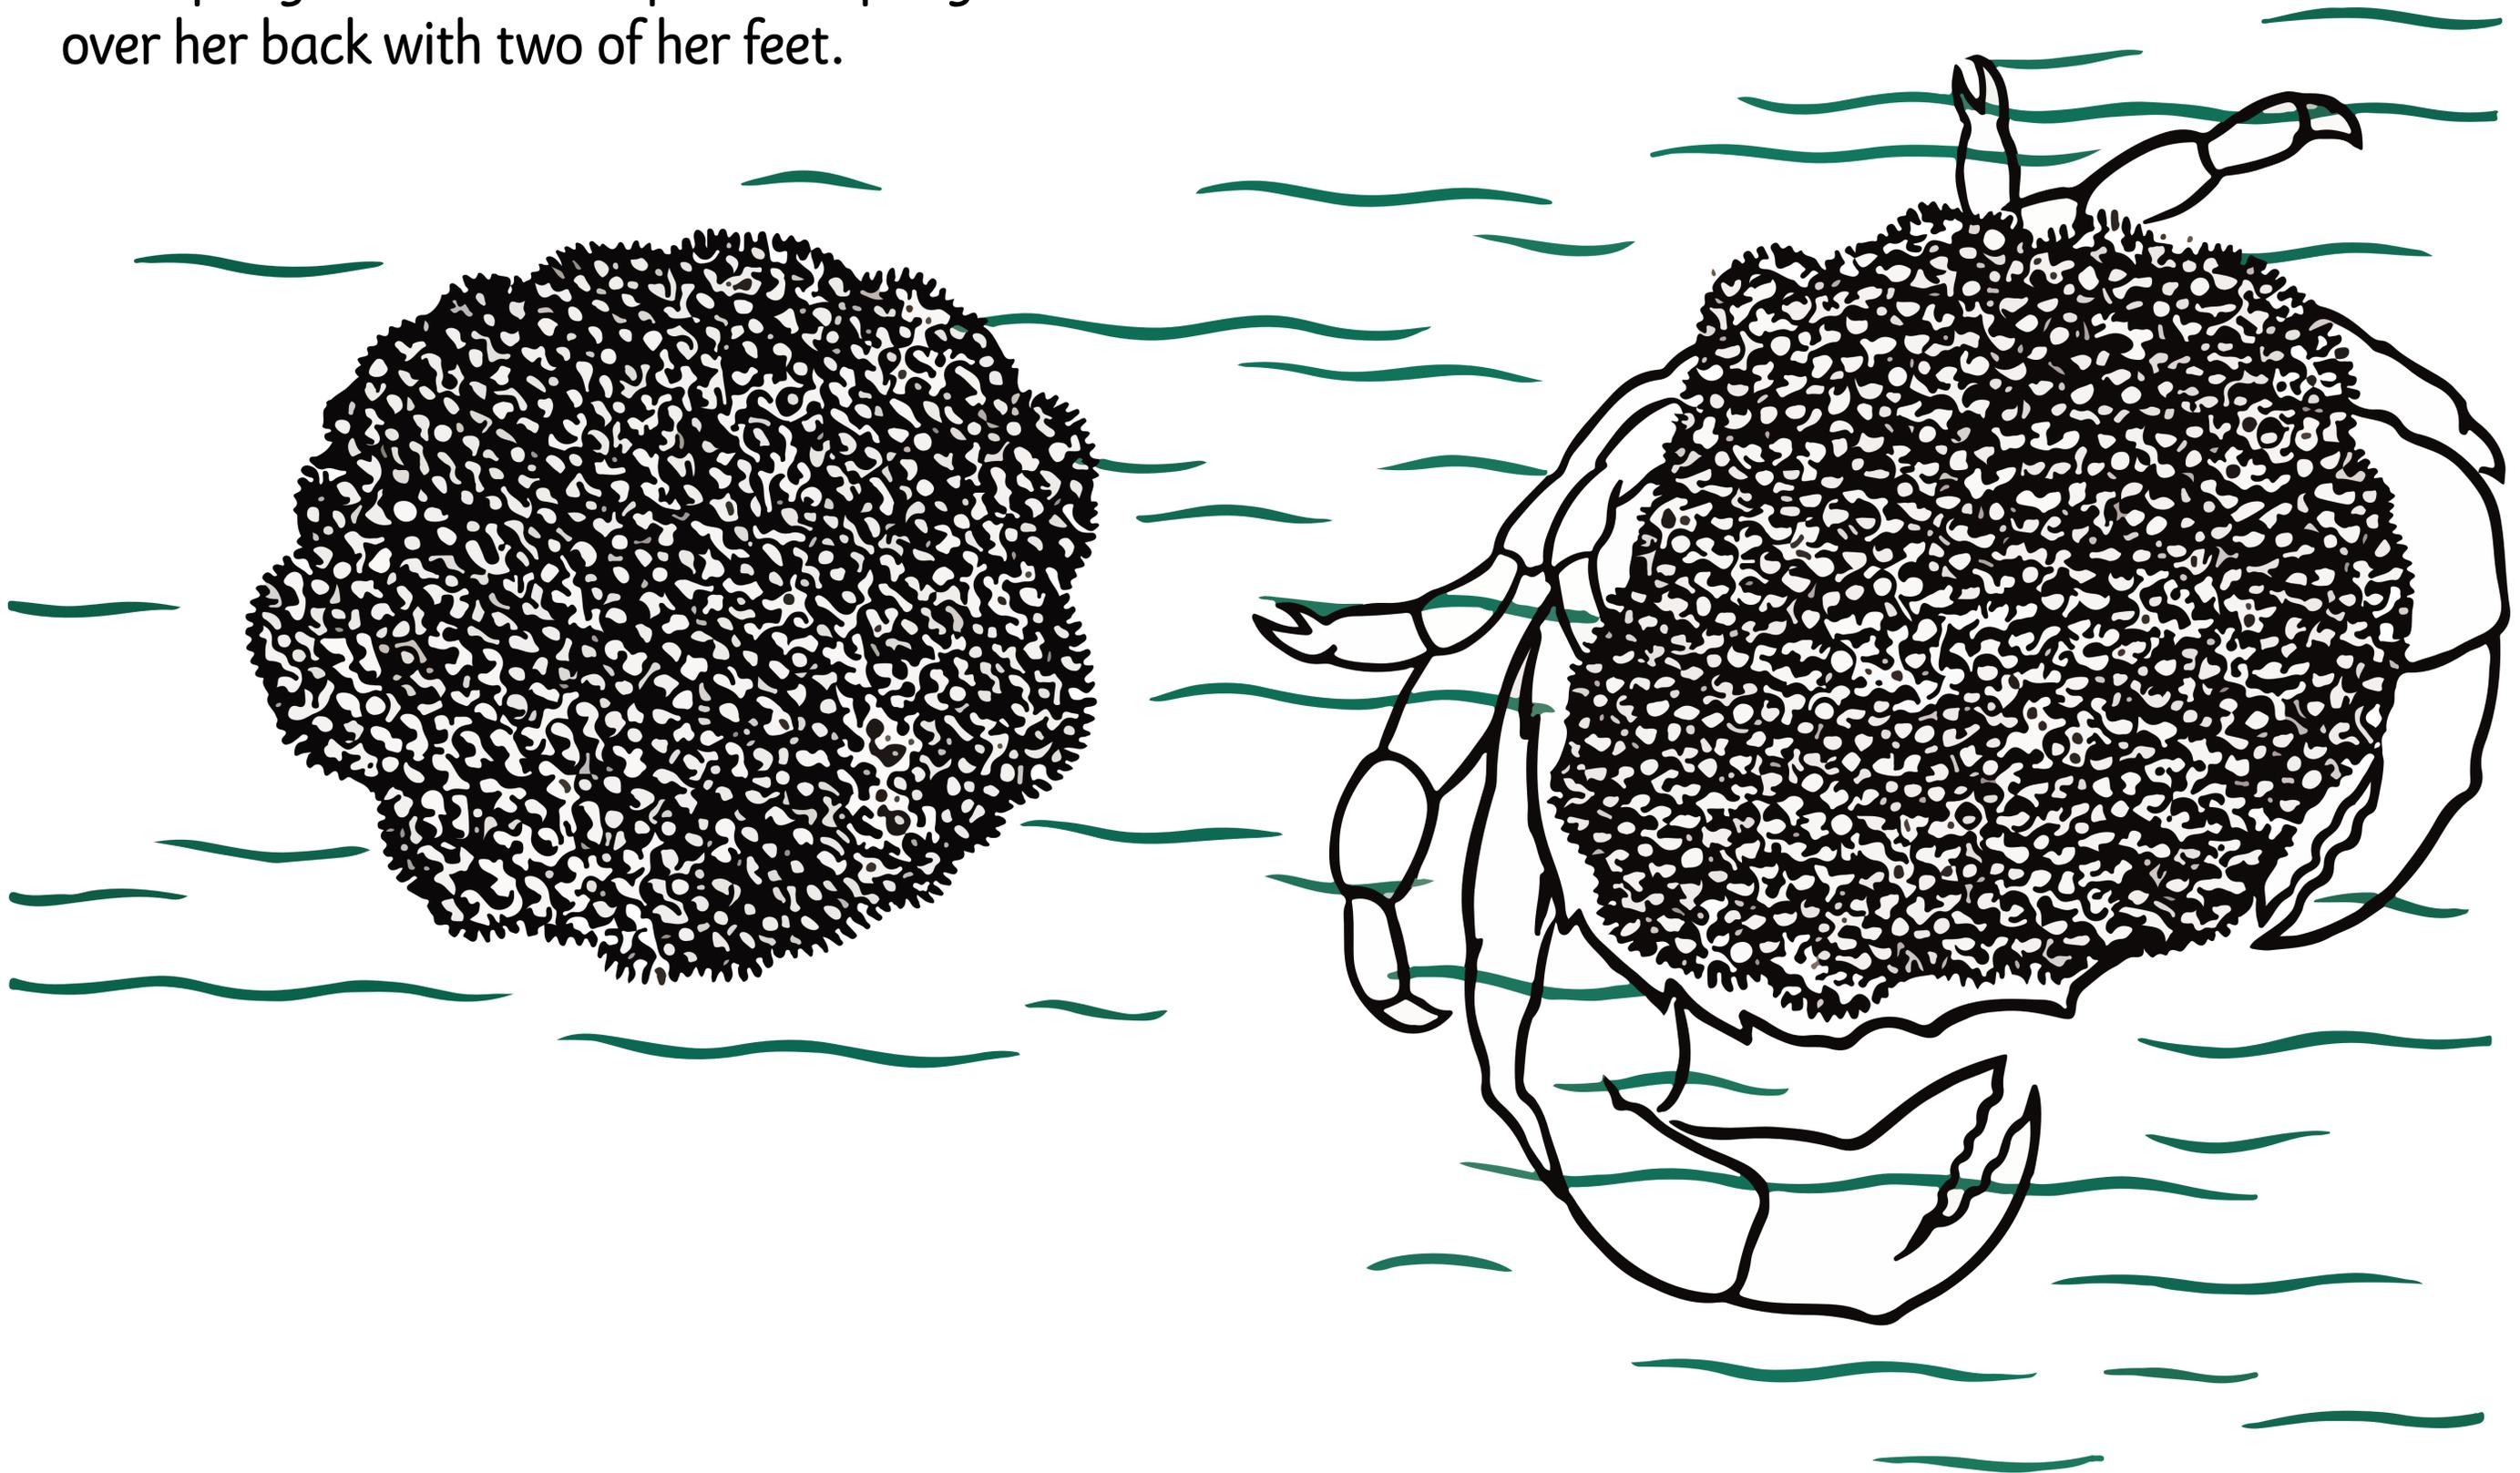

Hiding to keep safe

To trick his enemies, this young spider crab covers himself with scraps of seaweed.

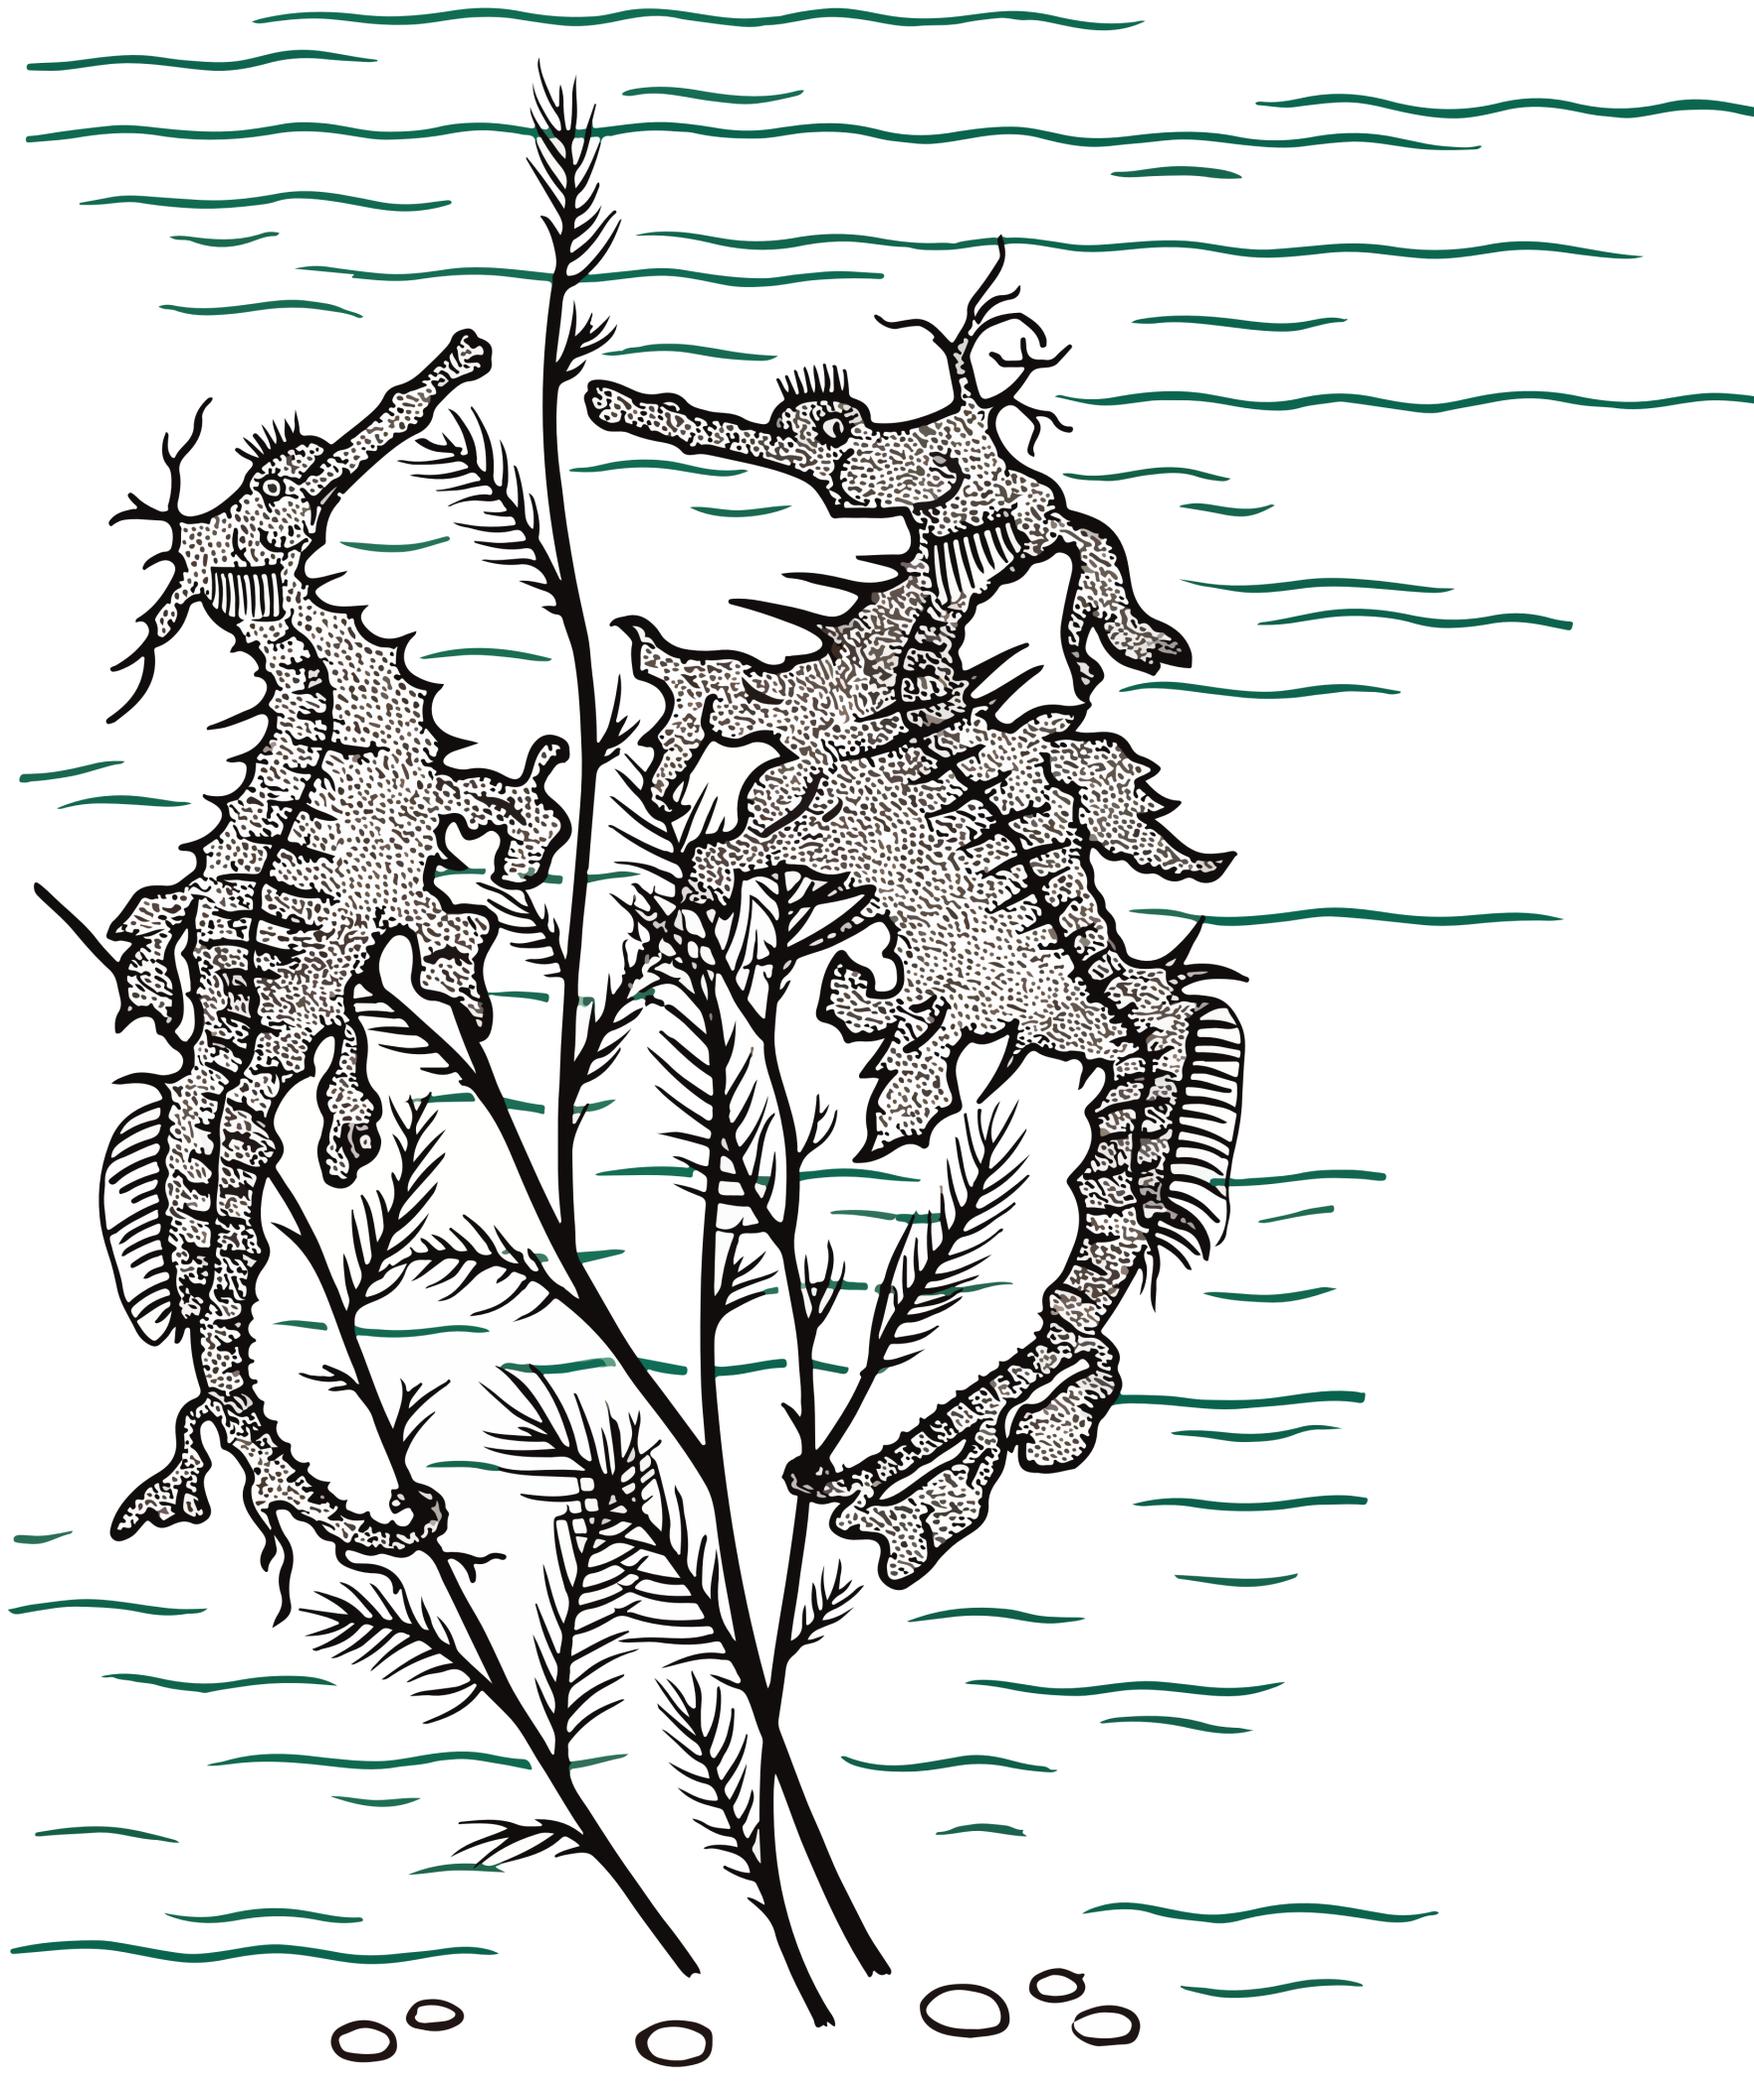

Hiding to keep safe

This sponge crab holds a piece of sponge over her back with two of her feet.

Hiding to keep safe

Australian sea dragons look as if they have grown leaves instead of fins. They could almost be mistaken for seaweed.

Hiding to keep safe

These pipe fishes, hiding in eel grass, can hardly be seen.

